

The Christie Robotic Pelvic Oncology Symposium

Wednesday 17th September 2014

Education Centre (Dept 17), The Christie, Manchester, M20 4BX

- The cutting-edge Da Vinci® robotic system is used in the surgical management of various pelvic oncological conditions by the Urologists, Gynaecologists and the Colorectal surgeons.
- The Da Vinci robotic operating system is in use by the surgeons at The Christie NHS Foundation Trust since 2008. The highly specialised surgeons have accumulated a wealth of minimal access surgical experience with the application of the Da Vinci robot to provide high quality cancer care for suitable patients.
- The robot allows our surgeons to perform minimally invasive procedures, using 3-D vision and specialised instruments with endowrist function. These instruments are an extension of surgeons own hands enabling precision surgery. This allows to improve the short-term and the cancer specific outcomes following surgery.

Aim / Objective

To provide an overview of the major aspects of robotic pelvic oncology

Learning Outcomes

- Improve the understanding of robotic surgery in pelvic oncology
- To understand the current status and the future of robotic surgery in oncology
- To assess the role of team work in robotic surgery
- Discuss the training in robotic surgery
- Discuss the position of specialised commissioning in robotic surgery in NHS England

Target Audience: Clinicians already working in surgery

Delegate Fee: £25 administrative fees for registration which will be returned on attendance
