

Specialty Skills in Coloproctology

23 February 2015

RCS London

The course sessions focus on the evaluation and treatment of benign anorectal diseases, pilonidal disease and stoma surgery, as well as operative procedures on the abdominal colon including right and left colectomy and Hartmann's procedures. Emphasis will be placed on small group teaching and will be predominantly skills based with utilisation of both animal models and cadaveric dissection.

Course content

- Anatomy of the anal canal, pelvic floor and rectum
- Assessment of haemorrhoidal disease and operative haemorrhoidectomy
- Evaluation and Treatment of pilonidal disease
- Stoma Complications
- Anatomy of the abdominal colon
- Management of anastomotic complications

Who should attend?

ST3-5 and SAS Grades

Course Fee

£650

Course Director

Mr Dermot Burke

Consultant in General Surgery
St James's University Hospital

Learning outcomes:

- Be able to manage haemorrhoids
- Recognise perianal sepsis
- Practice formation of stomas
- Perform mobilisation of the colon
- Identify the basic management of emergency colorectal surgery
- Outline the indications for Hartmann's procedure and the plan the preparation for Hartmann's reversal and surgical techniques

Course format

- Cadaveric demonstration and dissection
- Hands-on practical skills training for stoma/colostomy
- eLearning
- Informal discussions on surgical procedures

Further information and to book your place

<http://www.rcseng.ac.uk/courses>