

Timetable – Tackling the problem stoma (12th May 2015)

Time	Topic	Speaker
0830-0900	Registration, coffee etc.
0900-0920	Introduction to the symposium	Mr Ian Daniels, Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital
Session 1: High output stomas (Chair – Mr Ian Daniels)
0920-0940	Causes and incidence	Mr Neil Smart, Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, Exeter
0940-1000	Measuring the high-output stoma – the patient's perspective	Michael Seres
1000-1020	Medical management of the high-output stoma	Dr Chris Calvert, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Exeter
1020-1040	Panel Discussion	As above
1040-1100	Coffee
Session 2: The role of the stoma nurse (Chair – Mr Sanjay Chaudri)
1100-1120	Peristomal skin problems	Amanda Gunning, Stoma Nurse (Hollister)
1120-1140	Complex appliance adherence problems – tips & tricks	Tracey Holland, Stoma Nurse, Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital
1140-1200	Life style advice – Knickers & all	Julie Burton, Stoma Nurse, Yeovil
1200-1215	Panel Discussion	As above
Session 3: Living with a stoma (Chair - Mr Ian Daniels)
1215-1300	Panel Discussion	Stoma Patients
1300-1400	Lunch
Session 4: Parastomal hernia prevention (Chair – Mr John McGrath)
1400-1415	Definition, epidemiology, classification & risk factors	Jean-Baptiste Cornille, Surgical Registrar, Exeter
1415-1430	Stoma creation – does technique matter?	Miss Nasra Alam, Research Registrar, Exeter
1445-1510	Prophylactic mesh – does it work?	Sanjay Chaudri, Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, Leicester
1510-1530	Tea
Session 5: Parastomal hernia treatment & complex situations (Chair – Mr Tom Edwards)
1530-1550	Parastomal hernia – repair options	Sanjay Chaudri, Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, Leicester
1550-1610	Urostomies – are they different?	Mr John McGrath, Consultant Urologist & Mr Sunil Narang, Research Registrar, Exeter
1610-1630	Complex situations	Mr Ian Daniels, Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, Exeter
1630-1645	Panel discussion	All from sessions 4 & 5
1645-1700	Summary, feedback & close	