

Joint Royal College of Anaesthetists/Association of Surgeons of Great Britain and Ireland/Association of Coloproctology of Great Britain and Ireland

CPD Study Day:

Care of the patient undergoing major colorectal surgery

12th February 2016

RCoA, London

FRIDAY 12 th FEBRUARY
0910-0940	REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS
SESSION 1
0940-1000	Pre-operative risk assessment of the colorectal patient Dr Ramani Moonesinghe, London
1000-1020	Surgeon specific mortality data; are we becoming more risk averse? Speaker TBC
1020-1040	Prehabilitation before major surgery Dr Chris Snowden, Newcastle
1040-1055	DISCUSSION
1055-1115	REFRESHMENTS
SESSION 2
1115-1135	Iron transfusion or blood transfusion for the anaemic patient Mr Austin Acheson, Nottingham
1135-1155	Optimising the colorectal patient with significant cardiac disease Dr Akbar Vohra, Manchester
1155-1215	Robotic surgery: What will be the impact on surgical and anaesthetic practice? Professor Amjad Parvaiz, Portsmouth
1215-1230	DISCUSSION
1230-1330	LUNCH
SESSION 3
1330-1350	Why doesn't Goal directed fluid therapy work? Dr Richard Struthers, Plymouth
1350-1410	Reducing the incidence of wound infection Mr Tom Pinkney, Birmingham
1410-1430	Optimal analgesic strategies following major abdominal surgery Speaker TBC
1430-1445	DISCUSSION
1445-1505	REFRESHMENTS
SESSION 4
1505-1525	Perioperative medicine: the pathway to better surgical care Dr Jugdeep Dhesi, London
1525-1545	Current trials in perioperative medicine Dr Mark Edwards, London
1545-1615	Debate: The perioperative medicine team should be anaesthetist led? For: TBC Against: Dr Stuart Gold, Bath
1615-1635	DISCUSSION
1635-1640	Closing remarks

Event organisers: Dr John Williams & Mr Jon Lund