

PELICAN

cancer foundation

Third International Workshop on Managing Bowel Function after Cancer Treatment

Wednesday 1st November 2017

Convened by Dr Jervoise Andreyev, Mr Brendan Moran & Mr Francesco Di Fabio at Pelican Cancer Foundation, Basingstoke

Aim is to understand the implications of pelvic cancer treatment; functional challenges for patients and how clinicians can help their patients have a better quality of life after treatment.

Suitable for multi-disciplinary clinicians, in particular surgeons, gastroenterologists, oncologists and nurses

08.30	Registration
08.45	Welcome and introduction	Dr Jervoise Andreyev
08.50	The patient's perspective and discussion	Mr David Jillings

Chair Brendan Moran

The scale and range of acute and chronic GI toxicity

09.20	An overview of bowel toxicity issues and treatment	Dr Jervoise Andreyev
09.40	Surgical insult and changing dialogue	Prof Søren Laurberg
10.00	Multi-disciplinary collaboration on bladder & sexual dysfunction after surgery	Mr Christian Philips
10.20	Discussion
10.30	Coffee

Chair: David Sebag-Montefiore

Recognising the issues

11.00	The oncologists view on the nature of the problem	Prof Sebag-Montefiore
11.20	From "one size fits all" to personalized treatment planning	Mr Francesco Di Fabio
11.40	Informed consent before treatment – POLARS	Mr Nick Battersby
12.00	Treatment options for anterior resection syndrome	Prof Søren Laurberg
12.20	Discussion
12.30	The psychological & psychiatric morbidity of cancer treatment	Dr. Andrew Hodgkiss
12.50	Discussion
13.00	Lunch

Chair: Jervoise Andreyev

13.45	Case Study – Clare Donnellan
14.15	Managing incontinence and diarrhoea	Dr Clare Donnellan
14.25	The role of sacral nerve stimulation in managing ARS	Mr Tom Dudding
14.45	Comfort break
15.00	Should we talk about nutrition?	Dr Steve Wootton
15.20	The economics of GI toxicity	Dr Mirella Longo
15.40	Discussion and end	Dr Jervoise Andreyev Mr Brendan Moran