

Women in Surgery Symposium

Friday 5th October 2018

The International Centre Telford

Image Created by Freepik

0900 - 0930	Registration	1330 - 1510	Session 3: Sex and Specialty
0930 - 0940	Welcome and Opening	1330 - 1350	Being a Woman: did this affect my career choice?
0930 - 0935	The ASGBI view for Women in Surgery		Miss Tracey Gillies, Edinburgh
	Professor Rowan Parks, Edinburgh		Attrition from a woman perspective
0935 - 0940	The Symposium: ideas and scopes	1350-1410	Advocacy and networking: why do we need men on board?
	Ms Maria Irene Bellini, London		Miss Anya Adair, Edinburgh
0940 - 1040	Session 1: Women in Surgery in the UK		Oral Presentations
0940 - 1000	The story of the first female Professor of Surgery in the UK and the first female President of the ASGBI	1410 - 1435	What's in the sex?
	Professor Averil Mansfield, London	1410 - 1415	Ms Rebecca Critchley, Newcastle Upon Tyne
1000 - 1020	State Of The Art: How is the UK compared to other Western Countries?	1415 - 1420	Encouraging undergraduate female students to consider a surgical career
	Professor Farah Bhatti, Swansea		Dr Lap Yan Leung, London
1020 - 1040	The Academic Survival Kit	1420 - 1425	The role of WiNS and early surgical exposure during medical school
	Professor Christina Fotopolou, London		Ms Cristina Cernei, Oxford
1040 - 1200	Session 2: Leadership challenges	1425 - 1430	The role of mentoring in shaping the surgical future of female medical students: a cross-sectional study analysing the impact of speed mentoring sessions at surgical conferences
1040 - 1100	Work-life balance to prevent burn out		Ms Claudia Eichenauer, London
	Mrs Scarlett McNally, Brighton	1430 - 1435	Why I want to be a colorectal surgeon: the importance of female role models in influencing women to pursue surgery
1100 - 1120	21st Century Women in Surgery: what are the requirements?		Ms Elizabeth Reynolds, Manchester
	Ms Stella Vig, Croydon		Panel discussion
1120 - 1140	Maternity and Surgical Training		Coffee Break
	Ms Helen Mohan, Dublin		Session 4: Cognitive bias as a barrier for women in Surgery
1140 - 1205	Oral Presentations		The gender paygap in the NHS
1140 - 1145	Gender Discrimination in Leadership Roles in Surgical Societies in the UK	1435 - 1500	Dr Yitka Graham, Sunderland
	Dr Helen Skinner, Leeds	1500 - 1530	Fighting unconscious bias in ourselves and others
1145 - 1150	The Higher Surgical Trainee Return to Work: A Deanery Perspective	1530 - 1700	Professor Zoe Winters, London
	Miss Sophie Williams, London		Mentorship, coaching and sponsorship
1150 - 1155	Creating accepting and encouraging theatre spaces; the diversity challenge		Dr Alexis Hutson, Leicester
	Ms Zahra Hussain, Norwich		Panel discussion
1155 - 1200	Triple Jeopardy: Intersecting Challenges as an Ethnic Minority, Muslim and Female Trainee in Maxillofacial Surgery		Lessons Learnt/Future Projects
	Ms Zahra Al Asadi, Salisbury		Ms Maria Irene Bellini, London
1200 - 1205	Women in Surgery, a personal view	1610 - 1630
	Ms Kulsoom Nizami, Galway	1630 - 1650
1205 - 1230	Panel discussion	1650 - 1700
1230 - 1330	Lunch

Headline Sponsor:

Medtronic
Further, Together

Sponsors:

Swann-Morton LIMITED

MDU

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
Edinburgh Surgery Online

TO REGISTER VISIT: HTTP://ASGBI.ORG.UK/EVENTS/WOMEN-IN-SURGERY-SYMPOSIUM

Join the ASGBI Women in Surgery Facebook Group
Follow @ASGBI #HowIBecameAWomanInSurgery

Registration Fees: ASGBI Members: Free to attend
Non Members: £180

