

UK COLORECTAL ROBOTIC SURGERY CADAVERIC COURSE

NEWCASTLE SURGICAL
TRAINING CENTRE

10-11
June 2021

This course is designed to facilitate the surgeon with didactic and hands on cadaveric training experience. Conducted by a faculty of experienced surgeons, this is an intensive two day course of lectures, debate, exchange and practical hands on experience on colorectal procedures using an XI Da Vinci Robot.

OBJECTIVES

FACULTY

Mr Peter Coyne
Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals

Additional faculty to be confirmed

TARGET AUDIENCE:
Senior Colorectal Trainees &
Consultants

Become familiar with the function and operation of the da Vinci Surgical System
· Appreciate the ergonomics of the da Vinci Surgical system robot and the available robotic instrumentation. Understand the selection process for patient position, da Vinci surgical team position and robotic surgical approaches. Learn robotic tissue dissection techniques using monopolar energy

For full details and registration

Contact:
Louise Sore
Freeman Hospital
Newcastle upon Tyne
Email: louise.sore@nhs.net

FREEMAN HOSPITAL, NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE