

Accommodation at ACPGBI 2024

There are nearly 1000 hotel bedrooms at a range of hotels, all within walking distance of ICC Wales.

So, leave your car at the hotel or the convention centre for the duration and enjoy the fabulous programme and social agenda that this unique resort setting affords us this year! Alternatively, if you wish to stay within a short taxi ride/drive, check out options below in Newport or just along the M4 at the nicely priced Ty Magor.

The Secretariat won't be taking online accommodation bookings with registration this year - but we've negotiated with hotels to ensure they offer availability at fixed rates right up to our early deadline - 8 April 2024.

Book your hotel using hotel links provided by mid-March to get your preferred hotel and best rate. After 8 April, hotels will offer market-driven rates, so prices are highly likely to increase. We recommend you check the individual hotel's terms and conditions.

If your preference is to stay in Newport and drive or taxi each day, check out the Mercure listed below. Details on distance/taxi cost and parking at ICC Wales are indicated; all rates include VAT and breakfast and are prices that hotels have agreed to hold until 8 April. Thereafter, rates may change/increase.

Car parking: we've included guidance on car parking below, price indications are quoted by Celtic Collection head office in January 2024 but for firm costs and to find out whether pre-booking is necessary/available, we recommend you check directly with your chosen hotel.

There are a number of other cost-effective hotels available along the M4 that aren't listed above; please be aware that this stretch of the M4 is extremely busy, and it can take quite some time to travel at peak hours.

There is also a Premier Inn hotel within walking distance of ICC Wales, book on the Premier Inn hotels website - we could not get the hotel's agreement to fix rates.
