

The Association of Coloproctology of Great Britain and Ireland

East Anglian Chapter
Annual meeting
Drummond Education Centre
West Suffolk Hospital
Friday 31st May 2019

Organiser: Mr Neil Keeling

Update on the treatment and management of colorectal liver metastases
Mr Emmanuel Huguet, Addenbrookes Hospital

Ventral mesh rectopexy, why or why not?
Mr Ami Mishra, West Suffolk Hospital

TaTME, if, when and how do you start?
Mr Irshad Shaikh, Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital

Robotic rectal cancer surgery is it for everybody?
Mr Jim Khan, Portsmouth Hospitals

Stomas and how we can improve the patient experience
Mrs Bernadette Ambrose, Stoma Care Nurse Specialist, Anglia

Genetics for Colorectal cancer chemotherapy – what the surgeon needs to know
Dr Dan Patterson, West Suffolk Hospital

Brief update on PREPARE-ABC
Mr James Heron, Norfolk & Norwich University Hospital

Call for abstracts – there will be a short paper session for trainees to present their work with a prize awarded to the paper judged most worthy marked on originality, relevance, interest and presentation style.

Talks: 5 minutes with 2 minute allocated for questions. Deadline for abstracts 1st May 2019

Please email: samantha.skipp@wsh.nhs.uk to register for the meeting and submit abstracts.