

ACPGBI Executive Strategy 2020

Benefits for our Members

Membership Survey 2020

What ACPGBI already does well

What ACPGBI needs to do better

- Effective professional representation
- Clinical research activity
- Colorectal Disease journal
- Educational events & opportunities
- Guidelines
- Communications

- Medicolegal advice and support
- Support surgical colonoscopy
- Surgical training in colonoscopy
- Career long professional support
- Opportunities for wider membership

Membership

1

Publish results of membership survey & responses

2

Establish Early Years Consultant Network

3

Mentoring and peer support throughout career

4

Engage devolved nations & Republic of Ireland

5

Proactive about re-engaging members

Multidisciplinary Clinical Committee

1

Expand subcommittees to include proctology and abdominal wall

2

Rolling programme of guidelines detailed on website and coordinated with ESCP

3

Debate article on 'watch and wait' in rectal cancer

4

Positive endorsement of colonoscopy by surgeons

Clinical Governance Committee

1

Advertise services of Clinical Governance Committee to members

2

Ensure Royal Colleges
aware of ACPGBI
Clinical Governance

Education & Training

1

Develop bank of e-resources to support training and CPD

2

Support surgical trainees and consultants in colonoscopy

3

Robotic working group including elected members

4

Develop a new proctology course

5

Assess success of ACPGBI fellowship programme

External Affairs

1

Finance and develop new ACPGBI website

2

Formation of new elected Website subcommittee

3

Update website content - general professional content & patient pages

4

Regular Colorectal Disease 'paper of the month'

5

ACPGBI representative in every Trust

Research & Audit

1

Development of Colorectal
Research App

2

Complete merger of BDRF with
Bowel and Cancer
Research

3

Collate feedback from CReaTE programme

4

Promote Implementation science

5

Promote existing audit & database resource to membership

Finance

1

Advice on optimising financial management

2

Financial support for ACPGBI members to attend Tripartite

3

Financial security for Colorectal
Disease journal

Association of Coloproctology Nurses

1

Collaboration with other organisations

2

Promote educational opportunities

3

Continue to offer 50 free ACPN places at annual meeting

ACPGBI Quality Improvement

1

GIRFT
SETTING IT RIGHT FIRST TIME

National Clinical Improvement
Programme

2

Amplitude clinical outcomes

3

NBOCA | National Bowel
Cancer Audit

4

IMPACT
patient, access to care, bowel cancer, specialist services, impact on family, best practice, impact of disease, impact of treatment, quality of life, advanced colorectal cancer, awareness, ACPGBI

5

STRIVE
For excellence within colorectal cancer clinical surgery

6

Rectal Cancer

Long Term Strategy

1

Annual meeting
venue planning

2

Securing future of Tripartite colorectal meeting

ACPGBI Executive Strategy 2020

Benefits for our Members

<https://www.acpgbi.org.uk/>